IAS-87/74
5 July 1974

MEMORANDUM FOR: Office of the Deputy Director for Intelligence

ATTENTION :

SUBJECT : DDI Newsletter for Overseas Representatives

The following items are submitted in response to your memo of 24 May:

a. IAS reorganized from four analytical divisions into three in December 1973. The new structure reinforces the focus of imagery analysis resources in support of the production office needs on three key subject areas--SALT, MBFR negotiations, and economic matters. The current division designations are: Missile Systems Division [redacted] (acting chief), Military Division [redacted] (acting chief), and Economic and Scientific Division [redacted]

b. [redacted] are on year-long career development rotational assignments with OSR.

c. George Allen, Director IAS, attended the eight-week residential executive program at the Federal Executive Institute in Charlottesville during January and February 1974.

d. [redacted] Chief of the Economic and Scientific Division, will depart to attend the Industrial College of the Armed Forces in August.

e. [redacted] Deputy Chief of the Military Division, will be reassigned to the COMIREX staff in July. He will be succeeded by [redacted]
